NOTICE

This is with reference to Circulars CBSE/M&PR/2021/CGC/RS/Circular dated 4th August 2021, 27th August 2021 and 14th October 2021 regarding launch of Career Guidance Portal on 4th August 2021.

CBSE has come up with a unique initiative to guide Class IX to XII students for their career pathways and effectively utilize the portal in obtaining meaningful information regarding careers which is comprehensive, credible and free of cost and it is updated in real time.

Dear Parents & Students, the following features of the CBSE portal give an opportunity to....

- Access information on 550+ careers
- College Directory covering 25,000+ colleges & 2.8 lakh courses from India & 15 countries
- Entrance Exam Directory covering 1150+ exams from India & Abroad
- Scholarship Directory covering 1200+ scholarships from India & Abroad
- Find informative blogs to help you succeed

Our School Teachers have been trained on the portal and they will guide the students for self-registration on the portal <https://cbsecareerguidance.com/> and help them in accessing vital information on various careers, courses, scholarships and entrance examinations and enhance the awareness, knowledge and skills of students and to make them 'Future Ready'.

The students of Classes IX & X will be assigned one period weekly for classroom activities (such as Career talks, Individual presentations on "My Favorite Subjects", group discussion on career explorations, virtual career tours etc.)

Similarly, students of Classes XI & XII will be assigned one period weekly for classroom activities (such as Career Webinars, Individual presentations on "My Career plan", virtual meetings and group discussions on career explorations, individual & group sessions etc.)

All the Students of classes IX to XII should complete the first cycle of Registration on the portal by October 31st, 2021 to receive the benefits of career guidance.
